University of California, Berkeley
Graduate Division

Graduate Services: Fellowships Office
318 Sproul Hall
Berkeley, CA 94720-5900

THE DAVID N. KEIGHTLEY FELLOWSHIP
2015-2016

The David N. Keightley Fellowship will provide support for high-achieving graduate students in the College of Letters and Science at the University of California, Berkeley. Applicants shall be graduate students who demonstrate high academic distinction and whose work focuses on China and/or Chinese subjects. Preference will be given to applicants whose research emphasis is on Neolithic to the Han dynasty period. The fellowship is in the amount of $2,000, and it may be used for, but not limited to, summer research, travel, conference attendance, and fellowship support.

Name:_____SID#:_____
(Please print) (Last, first, M.I.)

Major:_____

Current Address:_____
(Street, city, state, zip)

Telephone: ( )_____Email:_____

Name sources of support you are currently receiving: _____

_____

_____

_____

Please provide the following:

- A brief description of your research (no more than one page)
- An endorsement letter from your academic advisor

Signature:_____ Date:_____

Submit your completed application and supporting materials to:

Graduate Services: Fellowships
318 Sproul Hall
Berkeley, CA 94720-5900

Deadline for receipt of completed applications and supporting materials is June 15, 2015.