NETWORKING FOR CAREER EXPLORATION AND PREPARATION

- What does it mean to build a network?
- How should my personal and professional values drive my career exploration?
- What is an informational interview and how do I get started?

Thursday,
April 13th, 2023

1:00 PM – 2:30 PM PT

Learning to network to advance your career can be a daunting task. This workshop will offer key insights on how to identify career networks inside and outside of academia, conduct informational interviews, and how to make a plan to get started on your networking journey.

This workshop is open to all graduate students.
